CTCC Journal Index from Issue 1 to 70 inclusive

Compiled by Dave Jones

The idea of creating an index arose because I was looking for any reference to a particular token I was considering buying and I had a vague recollection I had seen an article sometime in the past in the journal. I was right, but it took me the best part of 3 days to find it. This is something we must all have done, so what we need is an index. There have been indexes in the past, but as the Journal has been going for nearly 20 years I felt what we needed was a complete index of tokens and authors.

So what to include and what to exclude, what format, what information?

Some explanations on the index I have compiled.

1. If there was a mention of a token in an article and the DH number was given I have included it in the table. Sometimes there were pictures or text and no number, wherever I could identify it -I have added the number in the table.
2. If there was a photo or drawing I have added an asterisk to the number.
3. I have listed them by Country and County as D&H. County is easy to find in D&H, it is alphabetical, if I had listed by town, it would require the user to know the county.
4. Under "Wales" I have listed North and South separately.
5. I have listed by Journal consecutive number and page number. I have included a separate list of the years the Journals were published as to include it on every entry takes up too much space.
6. Within each county the tokens are listed lowest to highest DH number, if the reference is e.g. 3-37 then that comes after #3 and before #4.
7. References to Atkins, Withers or Davis are preceded by the relevant initial e.g. A32,D67, W1123.
8. I have used the Bis, BIS or bis 2 or II notation according to how the author used them.

Author/Article index

1. This caused me a problem, if I tried listing by article title, or by journal the result was not user friendly. I have settled for listing by author and then by Journal consecutive number within each author.
2. If in future the index is published as a .pdf it will be searchable anyway.
3. Where the article is correspondence I have tried to indicate what the letter is about.
4. I have not included notifications of future meetings but I have included reports of them.
5. I generally have not listed "Introductions" unless there is a specific topic or I think should be included.

6. Previous indexes have mixed subject's names with authors, I have not I have only included authors.

Some Comments/Observations

1. Thank You to Jack Mullen, Alan Fisher, Jon Lusk and Bill McKivor for suggestions and advice.
2. Thank You to Richard Bartlett who listed any reference to D&H numbers in his articles in Brackets and Bold. Please can future authors follow this practice?
3. Thank you to Ed Moore, our Librarian, for supplying me with the three early issues I lacked.
4. In issue 3 page 9 onwards Joel Springarn published a concordance between D&H and the R.C. Bell series of books. If you know the D&H number it tells which of the books and the page number. I think it would be an excellent idea to re-issue this contribution or at least put it on the website. I think it would be invaluable to collectors who, like me, were not aware of its existence.
5. Gary Sriro published his British Token Identifier in 4 issues as a separate supplement numbered sequentially across the 4 issues, I have included these numbers in italics.
6. Issue 47 has a report by Peter Preston Morley regarding the Spink auction in 2008, it includes nearly 3 pages of two columns of the lots with weights (285 in all). I have not included all these in the token listing. I have however included any reference in the text to individual tokens.
7. There are a series of articles reproducing Hamer's notes on Private Tokens. There are references and illustrations of tokens, they are not identified with D&H numbers therefore, unable to identify them all, I have omitted them all. If someone wishes to supply the identification information, the index can be updated. The same applies to the Samuel articles.
8. I have not included references to tokens in adverts.
